The Blessing Box Program

(Formerly named Summer Lunch program)

Provided by Beech Grove and Cedar Grove
Church of the Brethren

Due to the change in the needs of our community it has been decided to start a new direction.

We will be providing during the summer boxes of food, toiletries, and certificates to purchase produce, meat, dairy and bread at a local grocery for families who are in need in our surrounding area of Hollansburg, Palestine and New Madison. The first shopping trip has been completed and today you are invited to help pack six boxes for our first six families after church today in the fellowship hall.

The Blessing Box Program will partner and provide lunch, prayer and a bible story with the New Madison Public Library who will present their summer reading program to children in Hollansburg at the Park building.

Friday, June 28th 11:00 arrival, 12:00 serve lunch

(need volunteers to prepare lunch, serve)

1:00 Library presentation

Beech Grove will provide desserts!

Friday, July 26th 11:00 arrival, 12:00 serve lunch

Same Schedule- Cedar Grove provides desserts.

More information will be shared as this program develops.
