“When I Survey the Wonderful Cross”

When I survey the wondrous cross on which the Prince of glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
and pour contempt on all my pride.

Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast, save in the death of Christ my God;
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to his blood.

See from his head, his hands, his feet, sorrow and love flow mingled down!
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
or thorns compose so rich a crown?

Were the whole realm of nature mine, that were an offering far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine, demands my soul, my life, my all.

"Take My Life and Let it Be"

Take my life, and let it be
Consecrated, Lord to Thee.
Take my hands, and let them move at the impulse of Thy love.
At the impulse of Thy love

Take my feet, and let them be Swift and beautiful for Thee.
Take my voice and let me sing,
Always, only for my King.
Always, only for my King.

Take my lips and let them be Filled with messages for Thee.
Take my silver and my gold,
Not a mite would I withhold.
Not a mite would I withhold.

Take my life, let it be
Consecrated, Lord to Thee
Take my heart let it be Dedicated Lord to Thee

Take my love, my God, I pour
At Thy feet its treasure store.
Take myself and I will be
Ever, only for my King
Ever, only for my King

"Lord I Give You My Heart" by Michael W. Smith

This is my desire, to honor You
Lord with all my heart,
I worship You
All I have within me
I give You praise
All that adore is in You

Lord, I give You My heart
I give you my soul
I live for You alone
Every breath that I take
Every moment I'm awake
Lord have Your way with me
